
CLINICAL THERAPIST- Part Time

Overview

SHALVA has an opening for a part-time LCSW or LCPC to provide direct counseling for survivors of domestic abuse using a trauma informed, culturally sensitive approach. Prior experience providing individual therapy required, group therapy a plus. Must have familiarity with domestic violence and crisis intervention. This is a 15 hour per week position, working at least one evening per week. This position reports directly to the Clinical Director.

SHALVA's Mission Statement & History

Founded on the principle that every Jewish woman has the right to be safe in her personal relationship with her partner, SHALVA's mission is to support Jewish women experiencing and healing from domestic abuse through counseling, supportive services, and community education. Rooted in Jewish values and founded in 1986, the agency provides free domestic abuse counseling for adult women in the Chicago Jewish community. SHALVA is the oldest independent Jewish domestic abuse agency in the United States and has been instrumental in facilitating national and international dialogues on the specific needs of Jewish families experiencing domestic violence.

Responsibilities

This position will carry a caseload of approximately 8-10 active clients per week. Therapist will follow a feminist model approach to provide trauma informed therapy to individual clients. At times will also lead group sessions. Responsible for writing up clients notes and completing statistical reports after each session. Must rotate taking call to cover emergency pages. Participation in weekly supervision with clinical director and monthly staff meetings is required. Other duties as assigned and needed.

Position Description

Requirements

- LCSW or LCPC in counseling
- 3+ years' experience providing therapy
- Experience in crisis intervention and trauma informed therapy

Qualifications

- Excellent verbal and written communication skills.
- Understanding of Jewish culture and traditions
- Familiarity with domestic violence
- Proficient in Microsoft Office and database reporting
- After start date completion of 40 hour Domestic Violence training and ILCADV certification

Please email resume and cover letter to jobs@shalvaonline.org